NOVEMBER 20th PROGRAM LDS Records with a Focus on Military

Information with Rebecca Rinehard-Everyone knows that the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, the “Mormons,” has vast holdings of family data from around the world and operates one of the largest web sites for family research. However, what data can we access at the local Mormon library? This month Rebecca Rinehard, a 3rd year student preparing to be a professional genealogist, will speak on records available at the local center with a focus on military records, her specialty.

The WVGC library catalog is now posted on our website. Click on RESOURCES, then in the 3rd paragraph, click “Please see Genealogy Club Resources part 2 for the list of available books.” CHECK IT OUT! (or at least some of the materials).

A number of items in the library are up for grabs, look for them on the stage at the November meeting.

If you decide to borrow from the book cart (library), there is a green folder on one end to sign out (and in) when you borrow/return books.

Al Fulvio & George Nettleton taught a Renaissance class: Genealogy Sources with about 35 residents who came. Some have reignited their interest in Genealogy.

LDS Family History Library: The digitizing of their records continues with a target date around 2020. To find their digitized records, go to Finding Digital Images on Family Search tab. If you are searching the catalog, and find a source you'd like which is not yet digitized, let Familysearch know and they may move it up in the queue of their digitizing schedule.
